Champions Begin Series With St. Louis.

LATTER BUNCHED HITS

Cleveland Took Game from New York, and Chicago Shut Out Washington—Boston Nationals Again Lose to Cincinnati.

St. Louis, July 15.—The home team took the first of the series from the Champions yesterday afternoon by the score of 5 to 2. Winter and Pelky were the opposing pitchers, and the honors were about evenly divided, but the St. Louis team bunched their hits, and the visitors helped matters along by poor field work.

There was no scoring until the fifth inning when each side took two. With two down Seibach landed on first on a fielder's choice, went to second on Parent's single. Both scored when Burkett tripled to the right field fence. For St. Louis Wallace dropped a Texas leaguer in centre and Koehler walked, while Winter threw wild to first on Gleason's grounder, Wallace scoring on the play. On Roth's out to Stahl, Koehler crossed the plate.

The home team got another in the sixth when Ferris muffed Van Zant's attempt. Frisk sacrificed. Wallace was out to Seibach but Van Zant took third, from which he scored on Koehler's hit. Two more in the seventh clinched the game, being made on two errors, two singles and a force out.

DOLAN WOULD RETURN.

Pitcher Who Broke a Holyoke Contract Asks to Be Taken Back.

The Holyoke management has received a letter from Pitcher Dolan, who turned Holyoke down for Rutland of the Northern league, asking to be taken on the team. His request will be tabled for the present until Foreman has had a fair chance to show his worth. The Holyoke directors admit that it is a bad policy to remove a suspension and fine from a player, though it has not been decided yet just on what condition Dolan will return there if his appeal is heeded. Dolan was fined $100 and suspended for breaking his contract with Manager Frysinger. Rutland is the tail-end in the Northern league, which partly explains his dissatisfaction with his present hold. "Rube" Vickers also wants to come back to Holyoke, according to the directors, but, as in Dolan's case, his cries will not be heeded. Holyoke claims that it has no need for any extra men at this point, which, with the conditions under which the men ask to be restored to grace, make it seem unlikely that either Dolan or Vickers will be received into the fold.

DIED AFTER OPERATION.

Middlebury Young Man Had Undergone Operation.

Middlebury, July 15.—Denzie Cran-nelly, the young man who was run over by the cars here at about ten o'clock Wednesday, was operated upon at Dr. E. H. Martin's office and had both legs amputated, which had been partially cut off and horribly mangled by the train. But the loss of blood had been so great before competent medical assistance could be had that, with the added shock, the young man was unable to rally and he died half an hour or so after the completion of the operation. The remains were prepared for burial by Piper & Goyett. The funeral took place this morning from the home of Mrs. J. W. Wooster on Depot street, who is the mother of Mrs. Cran-nelly, and the funeral services were held at St. Mary's Roman Catholic church, while the burial was in the Catholic cemetery.

AUTOMOBILES BURNED.

Brattleboro Men Lose Without a Cent of Insurance.

Brattleboro July 15.—Fire yesterday seriously damaged Charles W. Dunham's Stevens-Duryea 1905 model touring car and reduced to a scrap heap Charles A. Harris' locomobile. The fire was in a lean-to attached to the shed and work shop adjoining the rear of Mr. Harris' residence on North street. Mr. Dunham's machine, which cost $3,000, was damaged to the amount of probably $1,200. The engine can be repaired, but the body is destroyed. The damage to the building and tools will amount to several hundred dollars. The total loss probably will exceed $2,500. A Stevens-Duryea expert who happened to be in Brattleboro this week put Mr. Dunham's machine in good order. It was one of the handsomest and best running cars in town. There was no insurance on either machine.

THE PRISON INVESTIGATION

Vermont Prison Director Says Wife Deserved Salary.

HARPIN ALLEGES WRONG

Cited Several Instances Where Superintendent Was Dishonest With Mileage Account and Official Supplies.

Bellevue Falls, July 15.—Testimony for and against Mr. Oakes, former superintendent of the state prison at Windsor, was given at yesterday's hearing in the official investigation into the affairs of that institution. E. C. Tuttle of Rutland, a director from 1892 to 1900, upheld Mr. Oakes on the charge that he paid his wife a salary from state funds, without sufficient cause.

Mr. Tuttle said that Mrs. Oakes had deserved her salary, as she had performed duties not required of a superintendent's wife. Witness also testified he knew of no instances where Mr. or Mrs. Oakes or any other official of the prison, had been guilty of negligence of duty. Contracts made by Mr. Oakes, for supplying the different buildings with power and light, said the witness, had saved money for the state.

The next witness was Edgar R. Harpin of Windsor, warden from 1889 to 1903, who testified as to friction between himself and the Oakes and of the unfavorable comments made by some of the prison officials when Mrs. Oakes' name was placed on the payroll. Witness alleged that Mr. Oakes was dishonest with his state mileage accounts and with official supplies. He cited several instances in connection with his charges. Witness also testified as to alleged unfair discrimination shown by Mr. Oakes to the members of his family employed in the prison.

Post, a stock broker, by threats to publish a scurrilous story in that paper, to Mr. Post's injury, if the latter failed to pay the money.
